

AEROPLANE VIEW, AUGUSTA, GA.—10

Augusta, the center of a rich agricultural area at the mouth of the Savannah River, was laid out by General James E. Oglethorpe in 1733. The city is rich in historical interest and was the scene of bitter fighting between Loyalists and Royalists during the Revolutionary War.

Dear Folks,
 How is ever one, we are fine. It sure is cold - I have just now came from up
 in Texas.

What the latest news in Sylvestertown - Hope
 all are well. we are fine & happy - Bye
 write us - much
 love to all - Love
 Emma & Tommy.

Published by Kinsella News Co., Augusta, Ga.
 Made by E. C. Kropp Co., Milwaukee, Wis.—LIT

MR. E. S. WILLIAMS

Box 13

SYLVESTER TEXAS